

Lesmana

Lesmana is a singer and songwriter from Finland. She grew up in Indonesia and has been living in Finland for nearly 20 years. Lesmana is a vocalist. She writes songs about the gospel, love and life. She speaks three languages, indonesia, finnish and english.

Lesmana is an Independent artist. So she will be very easy to find and collaborate with. She performs in restaurants and private parties with four professional finnish musicians. Although having a band supporting her, she can also perform as a duo.

After finishing her songwriter course from HEO Kansanopisto in Helsinki in 2019. She wants to go deeper on songwriter and currently she is studying at The Songwriting Academy London. Some of The songs she has produced:

- Onde mande

Onde mande is Sumatran tribe language, it means, "this should not happen". Expression of regret. It's a story of child abuse experience

- Safe ground's shaken.

A covid19 song, she did while maintaining covid19 regulations, she did it distance with different singers and a music arranger.

- In excelsis deo, a christmas song.

And more on spotify, you can also watch on her youtube channel and some other songs

She is looking for a collaboration partner to write and produce more songs with. As a singer her best genres are pop, rock and jazz.
